I THIANG-TING-CHUN and others have Intimated their intention to establi a Rice market in the west gate of TOONG FO CHIK, at Kook fow, Canton, the District A nistrate addressed the Superintendent of ital bours on the subject, who after making er quiries, made a report in favour of the propose project. It therefore has received the court consuce of the authorities, and a notification has been issued. This will be a step of great importance the interest of rice dealers, and will be a great boon to the public at large. even micker than before. If you are standing on a stone wall as he goes by, he is away before you can exclaim. His round, dark form rushes past as the noise of his feathers rings in your cars. It is the very best pare of all, it is almost inconceivably rapid; it is for dear life. But she; her at op from the clouds brings her close behind him; it gives her a fearful impetus; she is simply flying him down, and knows that he is dying before her. Yet he may live in fair flight, not from excess of speed; hid he may live still. There is a mountain him pair at hand; it is shallow now, but its banks have been undermined by the winter rains, and the heather drops over them like a screen. Under them at once, good grouse, for you descree your life; you have struggled half a mile to save it. There is no dog near to put you out; no marker to tell tales about you. True, she may "wait oh." about you - " make her point," as they say; but you are a good way off the folconor, and something else will be put up before he reaches you I think you are pretty sale. But it do such friendly cover is found—and there is uncom-monly little time in which to select it—the grouse dies, either cut over by the falcon, or taken by her as he drops by a wall side, with some indefinite sort of hope of getting between the stones.—St. Paul's Magazine. SUMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE Hongkong, Monday Morning. The deliveries of Bengal drug during the past few days have been large, and a fair native demand for it still exists, but as the large holders are anxious sellers and meet all requirements of the Chinese quite readily, prices have not shown much change for the better, a slight tone of firmness having only been imported to the market. Sales in Patna have been made at $6274 to $630, on cash terms, as also on credit, at the latter rate to the natives. Speculators for low figures at $625 to $6261 on time, have been in the market, replacing their sales by purchases at $630 to $6321. Bargain chops scrips nave also been shown upon the market at $635 to $640, with carnest money of $5 to $10 a chest, the buyers only imming the risk. Bits it as of this nature, it is said, has been done to a considerable extent. The latting course of the market also appeared the fature course of the market also appeared appeared the market also appeared advices from Calcutta by the steamer Dacco, now about due. Should she bring an additional supply of a few hundred chests, and a confirmation of 48,000 chests for the next year, the prices cannot but decline here. It is, however, sumewhat confidently stated in certain quarters, that the quantity will not much exceed 45,500 chests. Benares has been placed at $6171 to $620 or cash terms. Malwa continues to be still neglected with hardless to be still neglected. with hardly any transactions of moment. The following are the present rating prices: Patest $630 to $6224. Malwa $655 to $660. Patest of the 8th sales to arrive $635 to $6371. Late telegrams to the 19th alt. bave been received from London per Ottawa, quoting the Manchester market decoping, and the Gotton market weak, but in the absence of all business this news has little or no effect here. The market still remains in the same inactive condition that has characterised the whole week, and we do not hear of a transaction in Piece Goods. Haw Cotton has been sold to the extent of about 110 bales Bombay Staple at $18.00 to $19.25, but the market is a little weak on account of recent addition to the stock, and the count of recent addition to the stock, and the rather large amount of cargo that is known to be on the way hither. There have been a few transactions in Old Bank Shares at 21 premium ex-dividend, and sellers are reported at 27 premium enm div, but we hear of no transaction at this latter rate. New are quoted 5 premium. Whampon Dock 10 for Old, and 3 to 4 for New, There are sellers of Steamhoat hares at 1 discount, and buyers of Hotel at 45 discount. China Traders Insurance are in very large demand at 5225 premium, but none to be large demand at 3225 premium, but none to be bad. Union Dock are quoted 17 discount.

The steamer, Kin Kinng is, we understand, at last already for her northern trip, and will in a few days be laid on the berth for Yokohama, to take Chinese passengers and light freight. The repairs she has undergone, although of R very extensive nature, have not cost as much as was anticipated, or as was stated in these columns some weeks since. It was then estimated that the bill would amount to nearly $15 000, but on completion it has turned out that: the entire cost will not be over $10,000. The English Lindon mail of July 3rd will be due here on Wednesday next, but she may be looked for to-morrow, if she has not encountered bad weather.
